

WERE THEY LEGAL?

The Democratic Removals by Mr. Willis to Be Tested in Court.

The legality of the recent wholesale removals of Democrats from their places in the City Works Department at Brooklyn by Commissioner Theodore B. Willis will be tested in the courts on other grounds than those involved in the alleged violation of the civil service rules. Most of the discharged men have retained Mr. Edward M. Groat to bring mandamus proceedings, looking to their reinstatement. The contention is that the removals were not made within thirty days after Mr. Willis's appointment, in accordance with the provisions of the charter. It is probable that Mr. Groat may push his suit up to the Supreme Court today, but the papers in the case having been prepared.
